THE MARK OF AN INTELLIGENT MEETING

InterWrite Meeting Services™

Presenting InterWrite Meeting Services: it's the most intelligent solution for remote collaboration. Now you can connect meeting participants from anywhere in the world. Simply direct them to the meeting website – in a single click they can join your meeting. No IT specialist is required. Share applications. Conduct live demonstrations. Annotate, make changes, or modify actual files. Everyone can review and highlight ideas. Then use InterWrite to send all your meeting notes to customers or colleagues. Anywhere. Whether you have advanced meeting requirements or are just beginning to explore web-based collaboration, InterWrite Meeting Services has a powerful solution for you. The "Meeting Center" option lets you collaborate with an unlimited number of users and sites. You get a website branded under your company name.

And, each concurrent user gets personalized virtual offices. For smaller organizations, the "Business Exchange Office" option provides virtual office space for up to four meeting participants. Now, anyone with a web browser can just point to a meeting to join in! Thanks to a partnership between GTCO CalComp and WebEx, it's all possible, without IP addresses, data security issues and firewall restrictions. And, you don't need any new hardware, training, software installation or maintenance! Together with the complete line of InterWrite products, InterWrite Meeting Services eliminates travel time and expense, allows everyone to see what you're talking about, and puts everyone on the same page in a matter of minutes! InterWrite Meeting Services – the most intelligent way to meet.
